Vacancy Report Headline Figures - July 2019

172,100

Trend job advertisement count, July 2019

Change over the year

45.5%

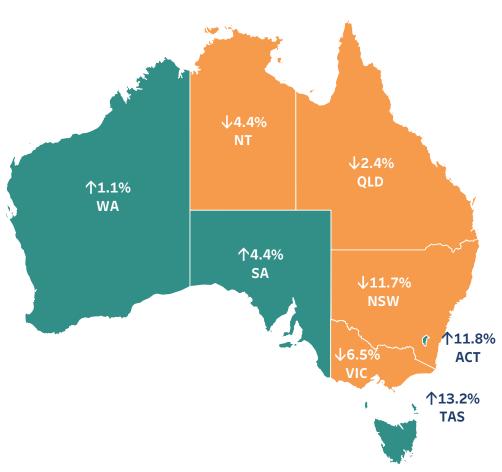

(or 10,000 job advertisements)

Change over the month

0.4%

(or 600 job advertisements)

Annual Growth, by State / Territory

Job Advertisements, by Major Occupational Group

Managers

21,600 Job Advertisements Down by 9.6% over the year

Technicians and Trades Workers

22,600 Job Advertisements Down by 10.0% over the year

Clerical and Administrative Workers

28,800 Job Advertisements Down by 8.1% over the year

Machinery Operators and Drivers

8,000 Job Advertisements Down by 15.5% over the year

Professionals

52,800 Job Advertisements Up by 1.3% over the year

Community and Personal Service Workers

15,100 Job Advertisements Up by 5.6% over the year

Sales Workers

13,000 Job Advertisements Down by 11.8% over the year

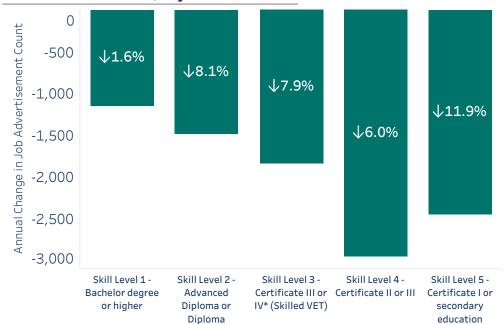

Labourers

10.200 Job Advertisements Down by 10.3% over the year

Largest Annual Growth & Decline, by Detailed Occupational Group

Annual Growth, by Skill Level

Most Common Skills Requested by Employers

Administrative Support Teaching Written Communication

Microsoft Excel Verbal Communication

Project Management Writing Stakeholder Management Organisational Skills Leadership Detail-Orientated

Communication Skills Research

Customer Service Building Relationships Problem Solving Planning Budgeting Team Work Time Management

Computer Literacy Energetic Microsoft Office Accounting

Source: Burning Glass Technologies, year to July 2019, most commonly requested skills. Font size represents the relative number of total job advertisements requesting the given skill.

 $The full Vacancy Report can be found on the Labour Market Information Portal at < \underline{http://lmip.gov.au/default.aspx?LMIP/GainInsights/VacancyReport>}. Please refer to the Vacancy Report background and explanatory to the Vacancy Rep$ notes in relation to data published on this page. Data on this page should be referenced as: Department of Employment, Skills, Small and Family Business, Internet Vacancy Index, Trend, July 2019.